As the initial pay of these two posts is the same, there seems to be no objection for the proposal.

9) The second proposal relates to the filling up of a General Vacancy of Rs. 30-3-60-4-80 by the promotion of an ~~~~ official on Rs. 30-2-40. This would practically amount to the conversion of a direct recruitment vacancy into one of promotion and cannot therefore be approved.

14) With regard to query (2), file leading to G.O. No. E.A. 2093-172 E.A. 14-21-7 dated 28th November 1921 is put up. Para 3 (b) of the G.O deals with the disposal of Promotion vacancies. It has been directed therein that promotion vacancies (in class 2, 3, ~~and 4~~) should be filled up by promotion of qualified candidates from class 1, 2 or 3 respectively. ~~In this connection the original draft G.O.~~

15) In this connection kind reference is invited to ~~the~~ para 3 (b) and (c) of the modified draft Govt Order, ~~it~~ wherein it is stated that promotion vacancies occurring in class II of appointments ~~should~~ be filled up by the promotion of qualified candidates from class I and those in class III and IV by the promotion of qualified candidates from class II or III respectively. These sub paras 3(b) and (c) appear to have been clubbed into para 3(b) in the G.O., as it was decided to take only 3 vacancies occurring in all classes (and not 4 in class II and 3 in classes III and IV as in the draft G.O) for purposes of determining the direct recruitment and Promotion vacancies.

16) From the above ~~the~~ facts, it would appear that if a promotion vacancy occurs in one class, it may be filled

18) The proposals of the High Court with regard to vacancies 1 and 2 seem to be in order, as stated in paras 5 and 6 of the office notes, and may be approved.

19) Vacancy No 3 should, strictly speaking, be thrown open to direct recruitment. But as it carries a pay of Rs 100-5-120 it may not be advisable to give the post to a candidate without experience. As there is no other appointment in the establishment falling within class I, the High Court may be asked to select a post ~~on Rs~~ in the next class on Rs 40-4-100 for direct recruitment.

HIGH COURT OF MYSORE, BANGALORE.

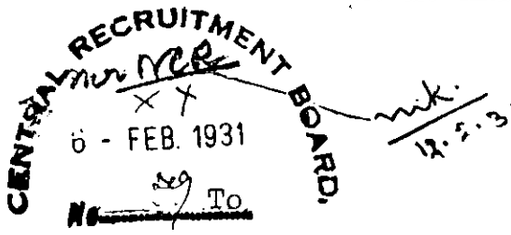
4th February 1931.

From

H. M. KRISHNASWAMI, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Registrar, High Court of Mysore,

BANGALORE.



The Secretary

Central Recruitment Board,

BANGALORE.

Sir,

I am directed to state that three vacancies have occurred in the ministerial establishment of the High Court office by the retirement of two clerks Messrs. N. Lakshmana Rao in Rs.40-4-100 grade and B. J. Basavalingappa in Rs.100-5-120 grade and by the death of Mr. S. Narahari Rao in Rs.30-3-60-4-80 grade. The earliest of these, is that of Mr. N. Lakshmana Rao. It happens to be the third vacancy, and therefore it is filled up by promotion, as shown in enclosed statement "A", and the last place in the series will be advertised as "B" class vacancy and filled up by the District Judge, Bangalore.

Next in order comes the vacancy of Mr. S. Narahari Rao and then the vacancy of Mr. B. J. Basavalingappa and these have to be advertised as "A" and "B" class vacancies respectively. In this connection, I am to bring to the notice of Government that if the higher posts that are vacant have to be advertised, persons who have rendered service faithfully and efficiently will suffer by promotion being withheld Their claims therefore deserve consideration, as chances for promotion are few and far between in the Judicial Department Accordingly it is proposed to promote Mr. B. N. Srikantayya who is now the senior clerk on Rs.30-3-60-4-80 getting Rs.76/- and is 49 years old and has put in 30 years service, to the grade of

40-4-10

40-4-100 in the vacancy of Mr. B. J. Basavalingappa and advertise the next grade vacancy in 30-3-60-4-80 grade; and similarly, in the vacancy of Mr. S. Narahari Rao, to promote Mr. D. Kesava Rao who is 42 years old and has put in 20 years of service and who is getting Rs.40/- in 30-2-40 grade for the last 3 years and is senior in that grade, to the grade of 30-3-60-4-80 and advertise the vacancy in the grade of 30-2-40.

Disposal of 4th vacancy

I am therefore to request that Government may be pleased to permit these officials to be promoted and the next lower grade of appointments to be advertised instead of the higher vacant places. Proposals to fill up these places accordingly are contained in the enclosed statement "A".

I am to request that you will be so good as to obtain permission as requested above, and cause the posts to be advertised at an early date as recommended.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
